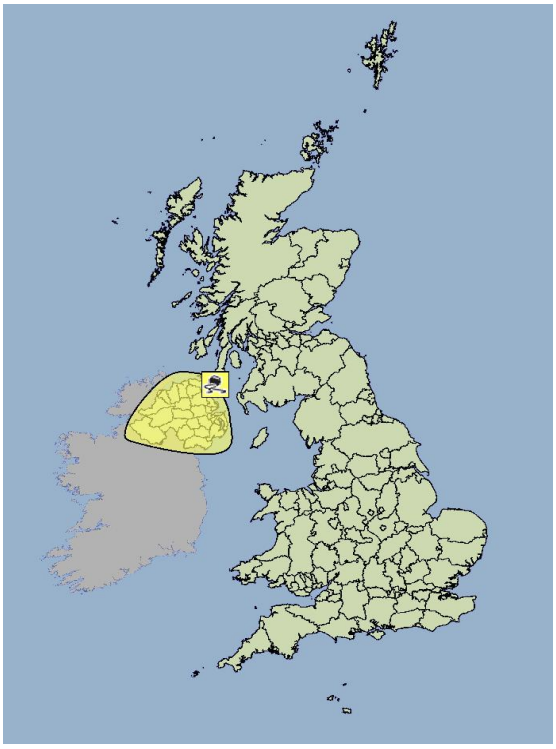
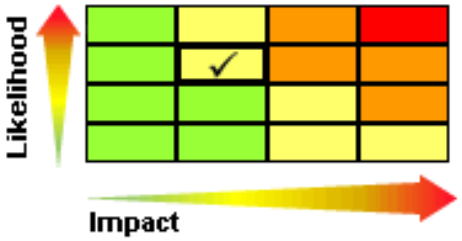
National Severe Weather Warning Service





Chief Forecasters Assessment
Surface temperatures are expected to fall overnight into Thursday with showers, falling as a mixture of sleet and snow at times, pushing eastwards across Northern Ireland during the night. Ice is expected to form on some untreated surfaces and with the showers some wash off of treatment is possible, particularly in northwestern parts.

The Met Office have issued a Yellow Warning of Ice

Valid from 00:05 on Thu, 15th Feb 2018 until 10:00 on Thu, 15th Feb 2018

Ice is expected to form on some untreated roads, pavements and cycle paths Wednesday night and through Thursday morning.

Some injuries are possible from slips and falls on icy surfaces.
